The New Records.

Almost before the cheering had subsided over the record time made by H. Smith, '08, in the one-mile run, last Saturday, a murmur of inquiry arose questioning whether the time would go down as a college record. So by the time that Bagg, '07, had broken the high jump and Leavenworth, '10, the pole-vault records, the question was discussed by probably the greater part of the Hamilton students and supporters.

Since Saturday this question has been investigated and it is found that there is ample precedent to show that records previously made on the Utica track went down as college records.

The record for the one-mile run established in May '98, by Ostrander, '99, at 4 minutes, 35 3-5 seconds, was a remarkably good one, and tho Smith only succeeded in cutting off the 3-5 second, it is a well earned and hard earned record. The time made by Smith was considerably faster than that made in the Yale-Harvard or Pennsylvania-Princeton meets.

The previous high jump record was held by Carroll, '06, at 5 feet 5 3-4 inches made in May, '06. Bagg exceeded this by tying with two Colgate men for first place, at 5 feet 6 inches. The pole-vault record, which was placed at 10 feet 2 1-2 inches, in May '02, by Wicks, '04, was exceeded by one-half inch.

When it is considered that a high jumper expressed the opinion that 5 feet 2 inches would secure a place in any New York intercollegiate meet this year, the excellent work of Captain Bagg will be appreciated. Leavenworth's record is eight inches higher than the height made two years ago, and nine inches higher than made last year in the N. Y. S. I. A. U. meets. That speaks for itself.

Track.

As every man in college knows, this is a critical time for the track department. The idea of dropping this sport and concentrating attention on baseball has lately come under discussion. Upon the result of this season, the future of the track department depends, and we expect success. The college has supported the team in the past, why not in the present? The team which broke three college records in the triangular meet is surely worth support. And there are two more meets still coming, the intercollegiate, at Hamilton, and the dual-meet with Rochester, at Auburn. Realizing that the team cannot be run on air, several members of that talented Sophomore class of ours are going to give a play for its benefit on June 4th, the night before K. P. Tickets can be had from any of the would-be track managers or those interested in the play; also at King's or VanSlyke's. Get one. And if you have subscribed, this is a good time to seek out the business end of the management and gladden its heart. It won't faint for joy, but it will be grateful. And one thing more, why aren't there more men out for the team? There are men in college who were on the team last year who are not out this season. The men who are out we are proud of, and they work hard, but we want everybody out. If every man in college will only get behind the band wagon, there won't be enough trees in the country for the opposing teams to climb, and the manager will have to endow prep. schools to get rid of his superfluous cash.

—The Geology Club, under the leadership of Prof. Miller, took a trip to the Dugway yesterday.

Tennis at Colgate.

The varsity team composed of Capt. Day '07, Simmons and Watson '08, Getman and Conklin '09, goes to Hamilton today to meet Colgate in the annual match. Owing to the inclement weather the team has had but little practice. Nevertheless they expect to win without serious trouble. Previous scores: 1905, Hamilton 5, Colgate 2; 1906, Hamilton 4, Colgate 0.

The Baseball Trip.

Friday morning the baseball team returned from its western trip on which Rochester and Hobart were played. Both games were lost thru rather loose playing at inopportune times. Again the fact is emphasized that we cannot have a winning baseball team without a coach. Capt. Brown has worked faithfully and well in getting the team into shape, but a man who is playing cannot coach so well as a man who is watching the work of the players from the outside.

Wednesday the team played at Rochester in a fast game. The Rochester team has been working well this season and from present indications will land the pennant. The game, was lost thru the inability of our team to hit when hits meant runs. Harrington was in the box for Rochester and kept the game well in hand. He will be remembered as the pitcher whom the varsity knocked out of the box last year in their game here. Capt. Brown pitched for Hamilton and did it well. He received ragged support at times, which made his work much harder. For Rochester, Joy caught some long hits in fine style and, with Sullivan and Reid, played the best games. For Hamilton, Brown, Clark and the Judsons played the best games.

Thursday the team played Hobart at Geneva. Newton joined the team at Geneva and pitched the entire game. From the way Hobart played here, the team expected a victory, but the fact that they hit fourteen pop-flies lent a different color to the outcome. They did not get steadied down until the game was well along and in the seventh inning the score was fifteen to two in favor of Hobart. In the last two innings Hamilton opened out and scored six runs. The pop-flies which the team hit persistently and several needless errors in handling the ball when men were on bases helped Hobart's score materially. In the second inning Newton, by some unfortunate wildness, hit two men, forcing in two runs. For Hobart, Bremer, Donnell and J. Rippey played well, while Brown and the Judsons played the steadiest games for Hamilton.

Today we play Rochester a return game on our diamond. Both Judsons will unfortunately be out of the game. As a result Brown will doubtless play third, Cody at first, Newton pitch and MacGary or Lloyd at short. This shake-up is hard on the team, but they can get around it and play fast ball if they feel that the college is with them to a man. It is the duty of every man in college to be out on the field today and support that team to make them win. They can do it if the college is behind them.

Attention, Please!

With the May Lit. passes the year's board, and June ushers in the new volume. With it come changes, of course; changes for the better, we hope. And to one department, a new one, we wish to call the attention of the college. It is to be called, "The Voice of the College", and in it will be expressions of opinion on various subjects which should interest us all. And these expressions are to come from the college body, from the faculty, or from the alumni. The Lit. solicits them, and hopes for response. If you have any steam to get off, any poignant, pungent, pithy, pointed paragraph on college matters of which you would like to ease your mind, why put it in the form of a letter or editorial and sign it (for identification, but not for print), and hand it to Woolcott '09, prior to the sixth of June, for the first issue.

We all have our editorial moods and then someone has an idea. Here's a chance for those who fall by the wayside in Lit. and LIFE competitions, and for those who never aspired at all, to get a whack at passing events, and who would wield a power and an influence. The interest of the college will make this department interesting.

Among the Colleges.

Colgate held her annual interscholastic meet yesterday.

Colgate defeated Middlebury last week by the score of 8-1.

Secretary Root, '64, delivered the third of a series of lectures on "The Responsibilities of Citizenship," at Yale last Monday evening. The subject of the lecture was, "The Duties of the Citizen as a Member of a Political Party."

LIFE IS MIGHTY GLAD to have an opportunity to congratulate both Prof. Root and the college on the former's recent anniversary of his 69th birthday. What "Square" means to us we all know. Hamilton without a "Square" we cannot conceive of. He is the heart and soul of the college and the college is the heart and soul of him. We love him and he loves us. The more opportunities of this kind we have the happier we will be.

THE Hamiltonian of 1908 is now almost a thing of the past. The 1909 effort will be the next one to try to get out on time. The 1908 book, as we all know by this time, is pretty good. Some even say that it's great, the best yet. That however is not a purely universal opinion. The rankest conservative tho can not deny that future aspirants will have to exert themselves to better it. Its excellence tho is not a chance occurrence. It is the product of ability and time. Ability, of course, is an accidental quality: but the time factor is a matter of choice. Therefore, 1909, get your board made up as soon as possible, secure the heirlooms of the out-going board e're they, the heirlooms, go astray, and utilize the summer months in some hearty planning, so that if nothing else, the next Hamiltonian may at least be on time.

WHEN WE HAVE A GOOD THING we are prone to fall short in appreciation. One boon that is ours is the present "ass. manager" system. It has built itself out of itself by a natural and healthy process of evolution, until today it stands as an approximation of the perfect, and we wish it either to remain that way or to become even perfection itself. In years past a managership was generally gained, to speak frankly, by some fortune, perhaps a little machination, and beyond a doubt by no work. But current conditions differ. Now to every managership we have from four to six aspirants working hard and squarely. If the candidate loses he at least has the consciousness of having done something for his alma mater. If he wins he has done so thru the natural reward of his deserts, and having secured the honor thru work, is the better manager for it. No one can even question the desirability of the system. To perpetuate and prosper it there is but one formula: Give to him who has earned it the job.

THE PROBLEM OF GETTING advertisements for a publication is a difficult one. Hardly any firm is eager to pay the price for an insertion, especially in a college periodical. No one ever heard of a manager being begged to accept an advertisement. If that were not so, we would be free to assert independence. But it is so, and as a result we are under somewhat of an obligation to the those merchants who are in reality the sustainers of our publications. Their support concerns us vitally.

So far all this is intangible. To speak specifically, we have a case on hand now that demands reasoning. Of about four Utica businesses, a certain category much patronized by men from the Hill, there is one that refuses to aid us in any way tho we have been some of this particular firm's best customers. To boycott, we by no means advocate. Because a firm does not help us is no reason why we should shun the place. But because a firm does help us is a reason, and a solid one, why we should favor that place. It is merely an ordinary mark of appreciation, and also, tho it is a rather mercenary view-point, it is wise.

AT A MEETING OF THE Senior Class held Friday morning a motion to give up the Senior Ball was tabled until this morning. After a thoro canvass of the crowds to ascertain the men who will attend, the class will try to decide whether to give a ball or not.

It seems that if the class is not unanimous in its wish to hold this dance, and, as is the case, a large percentage of the class opposes holding it this year, the wise thing to do would be to give it up.

There are very few men in college who really enjoy this dance, and to attempt to hold it without good support from the graduating class is very unbusinesslike. The committee will have the greatest difficulty in collecting the tax for the deficit which is almost sure to result. Sentiment and precedent favor holding this ball, so that the Seniors may leave their alma mater, to enter the cold world, enshrouded in a rosy veil of sentiment, etc. It seems merely to be a sort of farewell for the class. Why would not a class banquet be much less expensive, more sensible and more enjoyable in every way? The Seniors would have a much better chance to bid each other farewell and, since this is the true purpose of these festivities, it would seem to be a much more feasible and useful plan than holding a dance which no one wants.

Triangular Track Meet.

A triangular track meet was held by Colgate, Rutgers and Hamilton at Utica Park last Saturday. The weather at first was particularly favorable for a meet, but later in the afternoon there was a severe thunder storm, which somewhat dampened the enjoyment of the spectators. The final score was Colgate 70, Rutgers 24, Hamilton 23. The Varsity showed decidedly the lack of good coaching, and without this College Notes.

—Wright, '05, was on the Hill this week.

—Programs for next year are posted in Chapel.

—McGarry '09 is the latest victim of the mumps.

—There will be a special car to Utica after Freshman Frolic.

—The tennis team plays Colgate this afternoon at Hamilton.

—Are the leaders and managers of the Musical Clubs to be elected?

—Prof. Ibbotson preached in the Olivet church in Utica last Sunday.

—The Sophomore baseball team played the Ilion High School yesterday.

—Kazenstein '09 has returned to college after having been ill with the mumps.

—The family of the Hon. Elihu Root '64 has opened their summer home on the Hill.

—"The Mice Will Play" is progressing most favorably under the efficient direction of Prof. Shepard and Mr. Clinton Scollard.

—The standing in the Freshman LIFE competition follows: Cross, McMath, Engs, Lloyd.

—The Utica Press of last Monday contained a very complimentary article on the 1908 Hamiltonian.

—An important meeting of the Athletic Association will be held today immediately after noon chapel.

—On account of Junior Prize "Stab," Newton '08 was not able to start out with the baseball squad on the trip, but joined them at Hobart.

—Sunday morning Prof. White will preach a special sermon to the G. A. R. veterans in the Stone church.

—Rood '07, Hoyt '07, Sarles '10 and Engs '10 have returned to college after being home on account of illness.

—The wedding of Heacock, '06, to Miss Alice Balcer of Gloversville, will occur at the home of the bride on June 4th.

—The tennis tournament progresses very slowly. Let every man seek out his opponent and get the thing decided before it is too late.

—The condition of Hemenway '07, who is in the Faxon Hospital with typhoid fever, is much improved and his rapid recovery is expected.

—Holmes, '08, is recuperating from his attack of lumbago, at Rangeley Lakes. He is keeping up his work and will return as soon as possible.

—The college will be very sorry to learn that Trippe '07 has had to be moved back to Faxon Hospital, where it was found that another operation is necessary.

—Rev. Marco N. Popoff '90 of Sophia, Bulgaria, will address a meeting in the Stone Church tomorrow evening in the interests of his church and work in Bulgaria.

—Robert R. Wicks, '04, preached a very impressive sermon in Westminster church of Utica. He spoke upon the outgrowth of the trip which he recently took thru the Occident. It proved very interesting and was much appreciated by all who heard it.

—The Utica trolley service underwent a change of schedule this week. Cars now leave Clinton on the hour and half after the hour. Cars leave Utica for Clinton at quarter of and quarter after except on Sundays when the twenty-minute service is in effect.

—The Hamiltonian management is showing much enterprise in the selling of its publication. Subscription blanks have been distributed among the alumni to such good effect that a comparative financial success bids fair to be added to the book's already substantial laurels.

—"At Yale" was witnessed at the Majestic last Saturday after the meet, by the baseball 'varsity, who were the guests of the show management. The 1907 and 1908 Pentagons and about fifty other Hamilton men also attended. There were present good representations from both Rutgers and Colgate. Some friendly yells interspersed, lent much fun to the evening.

The Prize Speakers.

After the faculty meeting last Thursday the men who will compete on prize stage during Commencement week were announced. From the class of 1908 the competitors are Allen, Fitch, Fraser, Laird. From 1909, Getman, Kneeland, Krumboltz, Osborn will speak. From 1910 the men chosen are Baldwin, Judson, Mix, Sherwin. The competition this year has been very keen and LIFE congratulates the men who have won these appointments.

Death of S. S. Judson.

S. S. Judson, father of Judson '08 and Judson '10, dropped dead at his office in Vernon Thursday evening. It is thought his death was due to apoplexy. Mr. Judson was 52 years of age and seemingly in the best of health. For 32 years, from his graduation from Hamilton College Law School, he was an active and successful attorney at law and has held many offices, including president of his village. The deceased is survived by his wife, a daughter and the two sons.

The college extends her sincerest sympathy to the family. Mr. Judson has thru his active interest in our undergraduate affairs made the acquaintance of many of us here on the "Hill". We are therefore the more grieved at this early decease of him whom we are proud to call "a Hamilton man."
